CPA Firm Adds Staff Accountant to Team of Professionals

LA QUINTA, CA – Corry Hunter has joined the certified public accounting firm of Peterson Slater & Osborne as a staff accountant.

Hunter brings a diverse background to the firm, having joined the United States Army after graduating from La Quinta High School. After completing four years in the military, often serving in leadership capacities, Hunter went on to earn his associate's degree at College of the Desert.

He furthered his education at University of Southern California's Kenneth Leventhal School of Accounting. Upon earning his bachelor's degree in Accounting, Hunter returned to his native Coachella Valley and has since gained nearly four years of professional accounting experience at local firms.

"Corry's strong tax background is perfectly suited for the needs of our clients," says Lee M. Osborne, CPA, CFE, the firm's president. "We are pleased to welcome him to our team of professionals."

Peterson Slater & Osborne was founded nearly 60 years ago and has earned a solid reputation based on honesty, integrity, quality, and professionalism. PSO's staff of 15, including five certified public accountants, offers a variety of business and individual services, including litigation support, fraud detection, business valuation, finance consulting, and IRS representation and attestation.
